The House of Representatives yesterday adopted a resolution that Mr. Mungen, of Ohio, abused the rules of the House in having printed in the Globe a speech which he did not deliver in the House, and instructing the Com mittee on Rules to inquire if Mr. Mungen did not deserve censure, and directing that the speech be expunged from the Globe.

A movement was made at the late meeting of the directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company in favor of taking the Canal from under the control of the State of Mary land and placing it under the management of trustees independent of the State, but it was considered by the board of public works unconstitutional under the present constitution of Maryland.

The resolution which has passed the House of Representatives relative to an increase of the currency was considered yesterday, by the Banking and Currency Committee, and as the resolution is mandatory the committee decided to immediately prepare a bill to increase the present volume of currency fifty millions, but the members will oppose and vote against its passage when the bill comes up in the House.

Senator Johnston, of Virginia, has informed the Legislature of his State that Virginia's share of public land granted by the United States for agricultural purposes (300,000 acres), is now subject to the order of the State authorities.

GRAVY AND HAIR OIL AT A COLLEGE .-- A good religious college at Lansing, Michigan, was blessed with a wide circle of female friends among the denomination which it represented. One year the ladies in a thriving town where the college was very popular, thought it would be a kind act to send the senior class a box of cold roast turkeys and other dainties; and in order that the turkeys might go off smoothly, they put in the box a bottle of rich, savory gravy. It was not labeled, and the bottle containing it was very much like those in which a favorite kind of hair oil is exposed for sale on the tempting shelves of fancy good stores. When the box was opened at the college and the joyful feast disclosed to view, the Senior class were highly delighted. That Thanksgiving dinner was the happiest for many a year, Seniors, with handsome curling hair, thought, of course, the benevolent ladies had them in view in sending a present of Lair oil; and they rooms made a faithful application of gravy to their heads! The stickiness of the supposed hair oil soon aroused wonder; but it was some time before the Seniors knew that they had made a wrong use of a table luxury. The joke soon spread through the college, and at last reached the ears of the donors of the box. At Christmas, therefore, the same generous hearted ladies made ready another box of good things, and forwarded it to the same college. Taking a hint from the previous blunder, and believing that perhaps it was necessary for the Seniors that their heads should be fashionably appointed, the kind ladies put in the second box a bottle of real hair oil. The bottle, like its predecessor containing gravy, bore no label, and some of the unlucky Seniors determined to make no mistake this time, poured the contents liberally over their plates at dinner, without stopping to taste or smell. The odor of bergamot or cinnamon did not once undecive them. They imagined the hair oil to be, perhaps, an elegant new French dressing for cold meats, and swallowed their food with a few qualms,

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette,] RICHMOND, Feb. 22. - Washington's birth day passes without recognition, save by the Senate, which body in honor of the day, and upon the motion of a colored member, who said that he offered the resolution in good faith, and from a sense of respect, adjourned at an early hour.

The Senate Committee on Finance have reported adversely to the petition of certain citizens of Alexandria praying the remission of taxes, upon the ground of inexpediency and that the passage of such a bill would open the door for innumerable demands of a similar character; that the neglect of the Sheriff to perform his duty was reprehensible, and that the act passed by the Legislature placed a large number of persons outside of Alexandria, and the counties under the jurisdiction of the Alexandria government in precisely the same position as the petitioners. For these reasons they reported adversely.

The Senate, to day, passed a bill to incorporate the Loudoun and Rectortown Turnpike Company. Bills were reported chartering a company to construct a railroad from Fredericksburg, through the Northern neck of Virginia to the mouth of Cone river, opposite Point Lookout, also a railroad from Monaskon, on the Rappahannock river, in the county of Lancaster, to the mouth of Cone river, in Northumberland county. The latter road is a contemplated extension of the Richmond and York River road, which is already projected to Urbana, in Middlesex county, thence to cross the Neck at a point opposite Point Lookout, where, by means of steamers, it will connect with the Baltimore and Potomacroad. For three months in the year, navigation on the Potomac and Rappahannock is suspended and the peninsula (over one hundred miles in length) thus iso lated, causing much inconvenience and discomfort to the inhabitants. For these and other reasons Dr. Lewis, the Senator from the" Neck," district urges the passage of the bills granting these charters, and they will doubtless pass. A colored member, to-day, offered a resolution in the Senate, setting forth that all officers elected by the people under the provisions of the present Constitution are in no way responsible to the Legislature, that the appointment of the military places them in the position of their predecessors, and that any attempt on the part of the Legislature to interfere in such case will only lead to confusion, as the officers now holding by military appointment will continue to exercise the functions of their offices until their successors are elected by the people.

A bill legalizing the rate of interest so as to make it 12 per et. was considered, that clause of the old usury law forfeiting double the amount of the debt and interest, and allowing informers one half the amount involved, struck out and the bill ordered to be printed. A resolution was referred looking to an equali zation of passenger fare on railroads, so that the charge shall not exceed four cents per mile per passenger and one hundred and fifty pounds of baggage.

The following resolution which may lead to some exposition of the manner in which the affairs of certain of the State banks have been wound up, was referred to the Committee on

Resolved, That the Committee on Banks be instructed to inquire into and report to the Sen ate the condition of the several State banks of this commonwealth, at the close of the war in 1865, and what disposition has been made of assets of the same, and the committee shall have power to send for persons and papers.

In the House of Delegates, a bill was reported dividing the counties of the State into town ships, and road and school districts.

The House amended the Senate bill provid ing for the election of a Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General by the Legislature, by inserting a proviso to the effect that the officers so elected shall hold until their successors are chosen at the next general election, and as thus amended the bill passed. The Senate will, it is thought, not recede from its action, and as the House was thin when the vote was taken, it will probably finally pass as agreed upon by the Senate.

The House refused to reconsider the vote adopting the resolution relative to the inexpediency of the Legislature electing to office in this State any person disqualified by the 14th amendment. The report of the Committee for Courts of Justice, that it was inexpedient to re ratify the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States, was adopted by a decisive vote.

The Legislature, to day, elected Mr. C. A. Schaffter, of Lynchburg, Superintendent of Public Printing. Capt. Jas. M. Stevens to day gave bond in the sum of $50,000, and entered upon the discharge of his duties as Storekeeper of the Penitentiary. Rev. Dr. Munsey is to lecture in this city

The Governor has approved the act removing Judge Burnham from the Court of Ap peals. The Governor to-day appointed Judge Wm. J. Robertson of Albemarle, Patrick Henry Aylett, esq. of Richmond, and Maj. Wm. T. Southerlin of Danville, Commissioners on behalf of this State to dispose of the unsettled questions as to public debt &c. between Virginia and West Virginia. That these appointments are excellent is conceded on all sides. The action of the Commissioners will be subject to the approval of the General Assembly. The Speaker of the House of Delegates today laid before that body a communication from Senator Johnston, enclosing his correspondence with the Secretary of the Interior relative to Virginia's share in the land granted by Congress to the several States for the establishment of agricultural schools. The Secretary says that the scrip was made out and signed long ago, and was withheld because the State had not been restored to her rights as a member of the Federal Union. Now that she has been admitted to representation in Congress, she is entitled to the grant and it is now ready to be delivered to the authorized agent of the State. 'It is the opinion of the Commissioner of the Land Office that scrip should be issued to Virginia for 300,000 acres, as by the apportionment of 1860 the State is entitled to eight members of the House of Representatives. A State is allowed 30,000 acres for each member of Congress. Judge Underwood to-day wrote to the General Assignce in Bankruptcy, requesting him to defer the sale of a large amount of property advertised to be sold, first on account of its being the 22nd, and secondly because he had been at sent for some days and the parties had not had time to apply for a stay of proceedings.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Torpid System.

Sometimes, without any assignable cause, the physical strength and animal spirits give way. and a strange torpor falls alike on the body and intellect. There is little or no pain perhaps, but the natural vigor and clasticity of the neryous and muscular system seems to have departed, and an indifference to the pleasures of life, and even of its grave responsibilities, takes the place of that earnest interest in both which characterizes every well balanced mind when n a healthy condition.

This state of partial collapse is often the preionitory symptom of some serious malady. It ndicates unmistakably that the vital powers are languishing and need a stimulant. In such cases the effect of a few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is wonderfully beneficial. The great tonic wakes up the system from its drowse. The secretions and the circulation receive s new impetus. The relaxed nerves recover their lasticity under the operations of the specific, ike the slackened strength of a musical instrument in the process of tuning. Lethargy and lebility are replaced by energy and vigor, the spirits rise, and life that almost seemed a burlen while the season of depression lasted, becomes once more enjoyable. That such a radical change should be produced by a remedy entirely devoid of the powerful alkaloids and provement whose intrinsic merit and substan minerals so extensively used in modern pracice, may seem incredible to those who pin their faith on the medicinal efficacy of active poisons, but if these skeptics will take the trouble to enquire of those who have tested the corrective and alterative virtues of the Bitters under the and alterative virtues of the business described, they will find the circumstances described, they will find the circumstances to be true. statement to be true.
